SPANISH WITH PAUL MINI COURSE 7

SPANISHWITHPAUL.COM

Hello everyone and welcome to mini course 7,

The focus of this course is on the angle of "we" and how to express it using many of our core modal verbs such as can, want and have to.

I've also been very careful to make sure that much of the core vocabulary we've learned in the previous mini courses is reincorporated into this one. After all, there's little point in moving forward if it's at the expense of what we've already gained!

Many of you have seen your Spanish dramatically improve since starting this series and believe me when I tell you that no one is happier than me to watch your excitement, confidence and self-belief grow!

For those of you ready to take the plunge and become fully fluent in conversational Spanish my full course is now available for you now, you can check it out here.

You get access to not only my full course but also full access to me to personally help you through it.

My very best to you,

Paul
